This contemporary Catholic recording artist isn't for a select few - his energized concerts appeal to people of all backgrounds and ages. It's awesome to feel the high energy and faith that pour forth from this man, and to see it ripple through the crowds of youth and adults alike.

Aaron is an accomplished musician - songwriter, performer and producer with his own studio. In addition to his magical voice, Aaron is blessed with versatility in performing on keyboard, guitar and trumpet. Aaron has recorded 5 albums and is currently working on his 6th.

"Fishing for the Heart of the Family" is a ministry that Aaron began years ago as he realized the need for families to come together and pray with one another. Aaron presents the "bigger picture" as he takes his listeners through the Bible and teachings of the Church that we are all called to respond to being a member of God's family. His concert ministry has taken him all throughout the United States and Europe.

Aaron, his wife and five children live in Mesa, Arizona. He is currently the music director at St. Anne Catholic Church in Gilbert, AZ.
