NEW WORDS, DEEPER MEANING, SAME MASS TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18 AT 6:30 PM IN GRACE HALL

This Advent (Advent starts on Sunday, November 27), English-speaking Catholics throughout the world will begin using a new translation of the prayers and responses made at Mass.

To help us prepare, Father Bryan Babick, of the Office of Divine Worship for the Diocese of Charleston, will be offering a presentation on Tuesday, October 18, at 6:30 pm, in Grace Hall, located in the Parish Life center across the parking lot from the church.

Please make plans to join us.

ALL SOULS DAY BOOK

All Souls Day is celebrated on Wednesday, November 2, 2011. Traditionally our parish prepares a list of names in a "Book of the Dead." Names are submitted in memory of loved ones and the book is placed in the church during the month of November. If possible, please place your "All Souls Day" envelope (with the names listed on it) in the collection basket during the month of October so we can prepare the book.

WHAT IS THERESIANS?

It's the best kept secret around! So bring a friend and come find out on Monday, October 17, at the home of Theresa Rountree, at 7:00 pm. If you are looking for a way to deepen your spiritual life, you are invited to experience Theresians.

We are an international organization of women of faith who meet monthly in a small, affirming Christian community to pray, to be enlightened, challenged and supported in one's own lifestyle and one's own way of reaching out with Gospel values.

Membership to a Theresian community is open to all Christian women. For more information and directions to the meeting on October 17, contact Rosemary Cantey at 884-9944.

STARTS OCTOBER 15-16

Items needed are: soap, toothbrushes, hair clips, balls, school supplies, colored pencils and pens, hard candy, and Matchbox cars. The shoe box packing party will be held in Grace Hall on November 3. The shoe boxes are "Gospel Opportunities" because within each shoe box are colorful booklets of gospel stories written in their language. CONSIDER THE STEPHEN MINISTRY

The Stephen Ministry is offering Christian training sessions for those interested in reaching out to hurting people. Stephen Ministers are referred to as the "after people." Anyone going through difficult times either through the loss of a loved one, unemployment, retirement, relocation, divorce or being homebound, would greatly benefit from having a Stephen Minister. The motto of Stephen Ministry is "We Care—God Cures." Galatians 6:2 states "Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ." Training begins on November 12 at St. Benedict Church. If you are interested, contact Sr. Kathy Adamski at 216-0039.

Thank You Christ Our King

I am writing to express my appreciation for your parish's generous tithe of three thousand two hundred sixty-five dollars ($3,265) to the programs at ECCO. This donation will provide substantial additional resources for our outreach to those in need.

With the beginning of fall season, ECCO is a hive of activity with GED and WorkKeys classes, financial literacy classes, and computer classes, in addition to our established clinics and prescription assistance program. A new group of participants has started in the Getting Ahead classes which are the foundation of the Getting Ahead Family Partnership. In a few months, we hope to see these participants take measurable steps to improve their lives and the lives of their families.

ECCO is pleased to pay your generosity forward by tithing to another worthy organization. At our last staff meeting, staff members selected "Smile for a Lifetime — South Carolina Lowcountry," which provides pro-bono orthodontic dentistry to people in need.

Thank you for your continuing support.

JOIN YOUR LOCAL DISCERNMENT GROUP

If you are not sure about God's calling for your life, come join other men from around our diocese who are asking some of the same questions. The meetings serve as an informal setting to explore whether a man's vocation lies in the single, married, priestly, or religious life. Each of the five groups in the state meet once a month for food, prayer and discussion with Father Kirby. For more information, contact Father Kirby at 1-800-660-4102.
